Sample Question/Answer Page

Award: Volunteer of the Year

Please note: This is just an example of how the questions can be answered and the type of answers the Awards Committee is looking for.

Category 1:

Example answer:

We are nominating our board member Brenda Smith. She has been on our board for 7 years. During those 7 years she has been a Board member at large for 3 years, Vice chairperson for 1 year and Chairperson for 3 years up to the present.

In her position as board member Brenda has been involved with several projects at the centre.

- She took the lead role in 2 of our fundraising events in 2006. She disbursed all of the Show and Save books, created a spreadsheet to record all sales and provided families with friendly reminders about their fundraising obligation. She also was the person in charge of our silent auction for our Bud, Spud & Steak. She applied for the lottery license, created the request for donations letter, recruited and organized volunteers to pick up donations, and had everything wrapped and displayed at the event.
- Brenda was instrumental in organizing a family dinner at our past 3 AGMs. She believed that this would encourage more families to come. She also invited the staff and believed that it was a good opportunity to gather staff and families.
- For the last two Week of the ECE, Brenda has rallied the board to celebrate our staff. She organized a decorating team to come to the centre on the weekend and decorate the centre for the staff. There were posters all around the centre with thank yous from the parents and children and lots of balloons & streamers. She ordered lunch for the staff and recruited parents to serve it to them.

Category 2:

Example answer:

We are nominating our co-worker Jane Smith who volunteers for many organizations that are related to child care.

- Jane has been a volunteer for Children's Festival for 15 years. She began as a volunteer that worked at the face painting tent and is now a Board Member for the Children's Festival. During her 15 year volunteer commitment she has worked on various committees: This is where you could list the actual work that the person has volunteered.
- Jane has also volunteered for the National Early Learning & Care child care forum. She served on the steering committee and has completed numerous tasks, etc. This is where you can list what work she has done on the committee.

Category 3:

Example answer:

I am nominating my co-worker Penny Smith who volunteers for our regional MCCA Board of Directors. Penny has been a board member since the inception of our regional charter, 7 years. She began as a member at large and is now currently our President. As a board member Penny has taken on many responsibilities.

- Penny has ensured that our region has hosted two professional development events, one in the spring and one in the fall. This is where you could list the tasks that she has done to make this happen.
- Penny has started a regional newsletter and has recruited volunteer writers. This is where you could list the steps/tasks of how Penny produced the newsletter.
