

FEDERAL ELECTION INFORMATION FOR MCCA MEMBERS

THE FEDERAL ELECTION IS ON APRIL 28, 2025. LEADING UP TO THIS DAY, MCCA WILL SHARE INFORMATION AND RESOURCES TO HELP YOU MAKE AN INFORMED DECISION.

PLAN TO VOTE:

Keep your eyes open for your voting cards in your mailbox from Elections Canada. If you haven't received yours. Visit Elections Canada to make certain you are on the voters list or if you need to register.

Advanced polls are open April 18-21 from 9 a.m.- 9 p.m.

THE 2025 FEDERAL ELECTION IS CRITICAL FOR THE FUTURE OF CHILD CARE AND CANADIAN FAMILIES

STAY INFORMED

MCCA's website (under the Advocating for Quality tab) is your home for resources, links and resources about the federal election.

Check regularly for updated information.

QUESTIONS TO ASK OR WRITE TO CANDIDATES IN YOUR RIDING

- 1 Do you have a child care workforce strategy and plan to attract more early childhood educators through better wages, working conditions and affordable access to post-secondary programs?
- 2 What does flexibility and choices for families mean to your party?
- 3 What will you do to strengthen and expand the $10aDay child care plan to make more quality affordable spaces available to more families?
- 4 My work as a part of Canada's ELCC sector is essential. Does your plan make an ongoing commitment to value and support my profession and my work?
- 5 What are your party's beliefs on a high quality, universal, inclusive, flexible and publicly funded early learning and child care system?

YOUR VOICE AND YOUR VOTE MATTERS

MCCA will continue to advocate and provide information to our members. The time is NOW to get involved, advocate and ensure you are ready to ask the important questions and most importantly vote.

Vote to protect the incredible progress that has been made with the Canada Wide Agreements. Vote for Child Care - because Canada is stronger together.
