Educaring Award

On a separate (type written page(s), please answer the questions below and provide specific examples. The more examples you can provide the better. Please use the same numbering to answer the questions.

Please explain how the nominee:

1. Demonstrates communication by arranging an annual review of planning and communication between school and child care facility

For example:

- Do the facilities meet on an annual basis to review planning of the school and child care facility and to determine common goals and objectives?
- Do the facilities meet on an annual basis to review policies and procedures of both the school and the child care facility?
- Do representatives of the child care facility attend school staff meetings and vice versa?
- Do both facilities provide one another with copies of minutes from board meetings, staff meetings, parent council meetings, AGMs, etc?

2. Works collaboratively by sharing resources, ownership, information, space and equipment.

For example:

- Do the child care staff and the school staff use one another's staff room as a common area to mingle and build relationships? Please explain.
- Do the staff review meetings of children with additional support needs; having regular team meetings with representatives from the school and child care facility discussing strategies for working effectively with children with varying needs.
- Are the child care staff able and welcome to access the school's resources, such as the gym, gym equipment, photocopier, the library, etc?
- Is the child care centre free from paying rent and instead provide a donation for school resources?
- Do the two facilities work collaboratively to develop policies and permission forms for families for release of information?

3. Fosters reciprocal participation in one another's events.

For example:

- Does the child care facility invite and include the school to attend functions, such as the AGM, holiday festivities, etc.?
- Does the school invite and include the child care facility to attend their functions such as family nights or bbqs?
- Do the two facilities participate in similar professional development opportunities or attend each other's pd workshops or conferences?
- Do the ECEs and teachers visit each other's programs; volunteer time in each other's programs?
- Do the two facilities participate in one another's fundraising events?

4. Provides and maintains consistent delivery of programs serving children.

For example:

- Do the facilities include each other's work in the newsletter, blog's, website?
- Do representatives from either system sit on governing committees (Board of Directors or Parent Council)?
- Is the implantation of goals and strategies discussed in the review meetings?

5. Knows and respects how each other's system works and the required responsibilities of the other program.

For example:

- Do you educate one another about the government they operate under?
- Do you attend political events (rallies, conventions, etc.) that are related to either system?
- Is the pertinent information such as budget news, legislative news and advocacy information relayed to one another?
